Golden Sun

Warm, luminous and unmistakably distinctive, Golden Sun brings together rich golden tones and delicate silver-toned elements. The elongated pendant creates a graceful vertical line, while the matching bracelet echoes its warm character. Together they form a refined composition that feels both contemporary and timeless. A jewel for those who appreciate warmth, character and understated luxury.

Quiet Emotion
Elegance does not always need to be dramatic. Quiet Emotion is a study in restraint, combining delicate pearls with fine metallic details in a composition that feels intimate and refined. Its gentle proportions allow the natural beauty of the materials to remain at the centre. Created for moments when jewellery becomes a personal expression rather than simply an accessory.

Eternal Touch

There is something timeless about the simplicity of a pearl necklace. Eternal Touch captures that feeling through a graceful sequence of soft pink and burgundy tones, creating depth without losing its delicate character. The composition feels feminine, expressive and quietly luxurious. A piece designed to accompany its wearer through different moments, while retaining the unmistakable character of a handcrafted creation.

Urban Soul

A meeting between contemporary attitude and refined craftsmanship. Urban Soul transforms the classic language of pearl jewellery into a more expressive, modern composition. Its sculptural elements and flowing lines create movement, while the pearls introduce softness and sophistication. Designed for the woman who moves confidently between worlds—where elegance, individuality and modern style exist naturally together.

Flow of Life

Flow of Life celebrates movement, rhythm and natural balance. The alternating pearls and decorative metallic elements create a continuous visual rhythm, allowing the bracelet to feel organic rather than rigid. Each element contributes to the harmony of the whole, creating a design that is both distinctive and wearable. A reminder that true elegance is found in the effortless flow of details.

Eternal Elegance

Large luminous pearl forms meet sculptural geometry in a design that refuses to follow ordinary proportions. Eternal Elegance transforms the familiar pearl into a contemporary statement, where purity and structure exist side by side. Its striking silhouette makes the piece immediately recognizable, while its simplicity gives it lasting appeal. Created for collectors who value bold design with timeless character.

Natural Beauty

A simple circle becomes a powerful expression of balance. Natural Beauty pairs the organic character of pearl with a clean, sculptural form, creating a pendant that feels contemporary yet deeply connected to nature. Its restrained silhouette allows the materials to speak for themselves. A refined piece for those who believe that the most enduring beauty often comes from simplicity.

Breath of Nature

A composition inspired by the rhythm of the natural world. Pearls are arranged along the graceful curve of the bracelet, creating a delicate contrast between organic softness and the structured form of the display. Breath of Nature captures a feeling of calm, purity and continuity. It is a piece that celebrates the quiet relationship between nature and human craftsmanship.

Midnight Elegance

Subtle, sophisticated and quietly luminous, Midnight Elegance is a study in understated refinement. A delicate line of pearls follows the natural curve of the neckline, creating an effect that is graceful rather than excessive. The dark setting emphasizes the soft glow of each pearl, allowing their individual character to emerge. An elegant expression of beauty after sunset.

Golden Whisper

Warm golden pearls create the unmistakable character of Golden Whisper. The necklace and matching earrings form a harmonious ensemble, combining organic pearl shapes with sculptural golden accents. The result is rich without being excessive, elegant without becoming formal. Each element seems to carry its own quiet glow, creating a collection piece with warmth, individuality and an unmistakably feminine presence.

Rose Petal

Soft colour and delicate proportions define Rose Petal. Gentle pink and pale pearl tones are brought together in a composition that recalls the subtle layers of a flower. The accompanying earrings and pendant continue the same language, creating a sense of harmony throughout the design. Romantic yet refined, this is a jewel for those who appreciate softness expressed through craftsmanship.

Dream

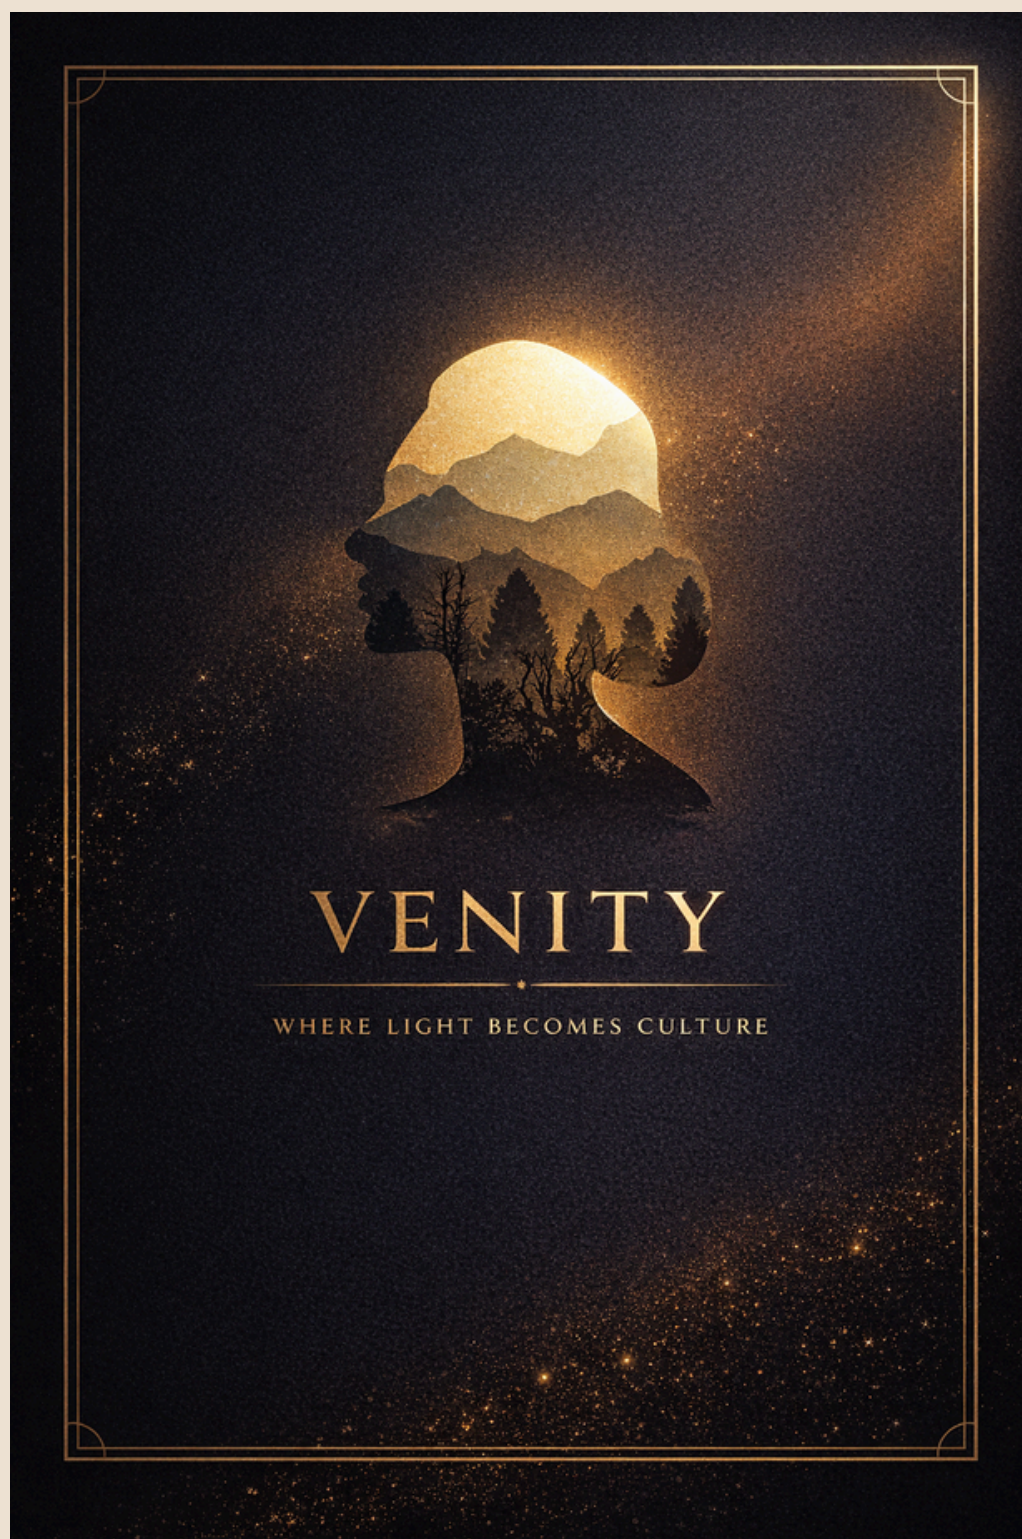

Dream explores the delicate relationship between colour, movement and form. Soft pearls are paired with expressive drops in contrasting tones, creating jewellery that feels both graceful and imaginative. The flowing silhouettes give the pieces a sense of movement, while the carefully balanced colours add personality. A collection designed not simply to complement an outfit, but to become part of its story.

Clover & Spider Broch

An unexpected meeting of delicate symbolism and intricate craftsmanship. Clover & Spider Broch brings together two distinctive motifs, transforming the traditional brooch into a small collectible work of art. Its detailed composition invites a closer look, revealing the beauty of carefully arranged elements. Created as an accent with character, it carries the charm of something discovered rather than simply worn.
